I, ... agree to undergo consultation with a practitioner at Global Health Clinics, or with our authorised locum, on the following terms.

All personal information gathered from me will be kept confidential under the Privacy Act, and any other laws of New Zealand. I agree for information being used, anonymously, for the purpose of advancement of knowledge, for example for teaching or as statistical data.

I maintain the right to refuse any examination or treatment that I do not wish to have. I agree that I will make every attempt to comply with any treatment I do accept, or I will discuss the reasons for this with the practitioner or with GHC management.

Global Health Clinics, or an authorised locum do not make any medical diagnoses, nor makes any claim to "cure" specific diseases. No attempt will be made to interfere with or recommend changes to medical treatment prescribed by a medical doctor. Global Health Practitioners make health assessments according to scientific principles. Global Health Clinics use holistic methods to assist clients to regain or improve their health.

Global Health Clinics practitioners use every care with the quality and appropriateness of neutraceutical preparations and therapies, I accept that, very rarely, there may be unexpected reactions. In that situation, I accept full responsibility for any adverse reactions and will inform my practitioner at the earliest possible time.

I take personal responsibility for my condition, and for the treatment and ongoing maintenance with the support of Global Health Clinics, its practitioners and authorised locums.

In accordance with legal requirements, I absolve Global Health Clinics and its practitioners from adverse reactions arising from non-disclosure of any medication or medical conditions.
